Camden
BLACK WALNUT FESTIVAL
October 16 & 17, 2021

Hello, and thank you for your interest in being a vendor at the 2021 Black Walnut Festival in Camden, Ohio! For more than 30 years, our vendors are what has made our festival a success.

The COVID pandemic and State of Ohio mandates forced us to cancel the 2020 Festival, but we are ramping up and planning this year to host the biggest and best Black Walnut Festival yet...to make up for it. We are enthusiastically planning this year's Festival and look forward to seeing you.

The 2021 Black Walnut Festival will take place the weekend of October 16-17, 2021. Arrivals and set up can begin on Friday 15th at 6:00 p.m. Festival hours are 9:00 am – 5:00 pm both days. Camden Comeback Committee is happy to be planning the event again this year.

While the state directives related to events in the Fall aren't finalized, we are confident that, based on the information provided to date, the Festival can be planned similar to how we have held it in the past. Having said that, things are unpredictable, of course, so we will certainly keep you updated with any state restrictions or guidelines - if any - that arise that will affect you as a vendor.

To support our vendors and to help make the Festival as busy and profitable as possible, we will:

- Actively advertise and promote the event to make sure you have a great crowd of customers.
- Communicate with you a few weeks prior to the event with a festival map and your booth assignment and any COVID-state requirements for you and/or your booth (i.e., masks, distancing)

As in the past, all food vendors must abide by Preble County Health Dept. guidelines at all times and must have appropriate permits. For more information, please contact them directly at 937-472-0087.

If you are a Direct Sales vendor, please check with us before submitting an application. We prefer only one vendor per company and our returning vendors who were cancelled with last year's Festival have first choice for those companies this year. Returning direct sales company vendors will have until June 15th to submit a paid vendor application or after that we will offer the spot to the next vendor on a waiting list for each company.

This year, there are two ways to register to be a vendor at the Black Walnut Festival.

- Complete and submit (via secure online site) a vendor application at our website: http://camdencomeback.org/black-walnut-festival/online-vendor-application/
- You can print out a vendor application, complete, sign, include payment and return via mail it to us.

Thank you for joining us for 2021!

We can't wait to welcome you back to Camden in October,

Camden Comeback Committee
